To my Parish family,

I'm writing from a deckchair in a Norfolk campsite where I am reflecting on what has been the most wonderful couple of weeks for me and, I hope, for the whole parish. We've not only celebrated my Ordination but Fr. Paul and Fr. David's anniversaries. 40 years and 39 respectively.

You can imagine that I had a few nerves on Saturday a couple of weeks ago but the whole occasion could not have gone better. All the support I had from the parish was so appreciated. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your encouragement, prayers, wishes and all the cards and gifts, I was really quite overwhelmed! I'd also like to thank everyone who helped on the day and in the run up to it. There was a lot of work involved but with so many pitching in you'd be forgiven for thinking the event ran itself! It didn't of course and I warmly thank everyone who helped to organise things, who made the church and its grounds look so beautiful, who played and sang beautifully, who welcomed people, cooked the BBQ, prepared and helped to serve food and drinks, who read and served at the service – the list just goes on and on!

That my first Sunday as a deacon coincided with Fr Paul's 40th anniversary was also very special. Some of you might remember that my ordination date was moved by a week early on in the planning stages, that it then fell on this other special occasion was quite providential and meant that we continued to celebrate as a parish into the Sunday when Fr Paul was gracious enough to share his occasion with me. I can't remember a weekend quite like it in our church. We continued to celebrate of course with Fr David's 39th anniversary and I enjoyed serving as deacon at all of the Masses that weekend and meeting more of you. Having enjoyed each other's company so much the last couple of weeks it makes me think we must make every effort to build on this momentum and make a point of developing more social opportunities in the community. Watch this space!

In the meantime, I look forward to getting started in this exciting new ministry. After the years of preparation, I feel blessed to be here to support all of you on your Christian journey, wherever you are on it and in any way that I can.

With every blessing,
Deacon Jamie
